

Advanced training is available from a number of organisations. Tailored to your personal ability, this can help you develop your riding skill and knowledge, giving you the tools to:

- Be safer on the road
- Get more enjoyment from riding
- Be in control of hazardous situations
- Reduce your risk of having a collision.

Costs vary, please contact the relevant organisation for specific details:

BikeSafe

- Run by the Police
- BikeSafe is about 'Bridging the Gap' into accredited training
- Classroom based activities can offer potential solutions to the most prevalent crash causes
- Observed ride elements can prepare an individual rider with a rider development report which can be taken to a post-test training provider.
- Each course is held over two Sundays and it costs £25
- To book a course visit www.bikesafe.co.uk
